SARDIS.

Holman Tarlton and wife of Maysville were visiting at Perry Suit's last Saturday and Sunday.

We had quite a storm of wind and rain here last Sunday. The rain did much good, and the wind did no harm except uproot a few trees.

There was a dance at Gus Bell's last Saturday night. Trouble arose. A certain Bill Cox of color shot twice a certain Bill Middleton of the same complexion. Middleton is likely to die. Cox was handcuffed and taken to jail. So much for a dance. Will the people never cease to do evil and learn to do well?

MT. OLIVET.

Miss Nettie Hill of this place is visiting in Maysville.

Mrs. Lucy Keen of Germantown is visiting Mrs. L. J. Kain.

The Mt. Olivet Sunday-schools will have a union picnic at Blue Licks Saturday.

Senator E. Kenton is spending a few days at his pretty country home just out of town.

Mrs. Robert Buckler and Mrs. Jack Suit of Sardis were in town Saturday shopping.

Richard Murray had his arm broken while engaged in a wrestle Saturday afternoon.

The ice cream and strawberry supper at the Courthouse, by the ladies of the Baptist Church, netted about $40.00.

Court was well attended by a quiet and orderly crowd. Business was good and some horses and cattle were on the market.

Charles French is preparing to put up a large business house in the burnt district. Also a residence on his lot just West of the M. E. Church.

J. Barbour Russell, possibly the most widely known Knight of the Road in Northeastern Kentucky, was in town Monday. Mr. Russell always makes his residence felt.

On Saturday afternoon about a score of Democrats, in pursuance to a call, assembled in mass-convention. Considerable business was done and several resolutions were put through without a negative vote. "All good Democrats" were allowed to go to Louisville as delegates.

Three tracts of land belonging to the estate of J. W. McDowell, who assigned about a year ago, were sold from the Courthouse door to satisfy claims of creditors. One parcel brought $60.50 per acre; another $90.75 per acre, and the third $90 per acre. A gentleman from Bourbon county who was present remarked that he would like to move his farm to Robertson for sale.

Real Estate Transfers.

John Breeze and wife to Mary E. Hall, one-half acre of ground on the Mt. Sterling turnpike; consideration, $20.

Amanda B. Edgington and others to Moses Caudle, colored, a house and lot on North side of Central avenue, Sixth Ward; consideration, $700.

Another Pension Agent in Trouble.

William Libby, pension agent at Newport, has been arrested for fraudulently obtaining money from pension claimants. He is accused of being implicated with Benton, who was recently convicted in the United States Court.

John Wesley McClure, an old and feeble colored man secured a pension of $1.20 a few months ago, and has been defrauded out of the whole amount by unscrupulous rascals, among whom it is alleged Libby figured.

MASON COUNTY COURT MATTERS.

Gleanings From the Pages of Hon. Thomas R. Phister's Daily Docket.

The last will and testament of John H. Archdeacon was produced in court and proven by the oath of W. C. Miner, one of the attesting witnesses. The signature of Charles S. Miner, the other attesting witness, was proven by the oaths of W. C. Miner and R. K. Hoeflich. William R. Archdeacon, a brother of the deceased, was named in the will as executor, without security.

James Rice, J. Foster Barbour and R. K. Hoeflich were appointed to appraise the personal property of the deceased.

LEWIS KIPP, 65 years old, living at Newport, whose wife died about three weeks ago concluded to get married again. He found a woman who was willing, got a license and secured the services of a Magistrate, but his married daughter and the neighbors raised such a row that the "Squire" continued the case until to-day.

The following is given as a warning to the Kentucky Press Association by The Frankfort Capital: "The association grows too large; too many claim privileges to which they are not entitled, and the result—if this tendency be not checked—will be disintegration of the body. The Executive Committee will look after this matter; make more stringent resolutions; select a place of meeting next year and see to it that the membership of the body is strictly confined to those coming within the limits set forth by the Constitution and by-law."

The Ironclad Concord will stop at Hickman on its way back from Paducah, and give the natives a chance to see one of the Government's big war vessels.

County conventions held up until yesterday (the number of delegates to the State Democratic Convention instructed for Carlisle 167, and for Cleveland 91).
